William Sharpe.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1ſt Day of February, 1760,

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Proclamation of the 15th of May laſt, "For "giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied "Landmen to enter themſelves on board His Ma"jeſty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for "diſcovering ſuch Seamen as ſhall conceal them"ſelves; for pardoning ſuch Seamen as have deſert"ed and ſhall return into the Service; and alſo for "taking up all ſtragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 11th of this Inſtant February; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer—His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order, that the ſaid Time be prolonged and extended from the aforeſaid 11th Day of this Inſtant February, to the 24th Day of March next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 24th Day of March next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

William Sharpe.

St. James's, Monday February 4, 1760.

This Day a Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter was held in the Council Chamber, Present, The Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, his Royal Highness Prince Edward, the Duke of Newcastle, the Duke of Kingston, the Duke of Leeds, Earl Granville, the Earl of Lincoln, the Earl of Cardigan, the Duke of Devonshire, the Earl of Northumberland, and Earl Waldegrave; when Charles Marquis of Rockingham, and Richard Earl Temple, were knighted, and elected Companions of the said Most Noble Order; and afterwards invested with the Garter, Ribbon and George, with the accustomed Solemnities.

Whitehall, February 5, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Wednesday the 23d of January last, in the Morning, the Body of Nathaniel Revell, of Gainsborough, in the County of Lincoln, Gentleman, was found dead, and floating, in the Cold Bath, near the Town of Gainsborough, aforesaid, with two large Wounds upon the Head; — That the said Nathaniel Revell was at the House of Elizabeth Dixon, Widow, in Gainsborough, aforesaid, until about Half an Hour past Five of the Clock, in the Evening of the 22d of the said Month of January last, in perfect Health of Body, and Tranquility of Mind; and that, about the Time last abovementioned, the said Deceased left the said Mrs. Dixon, and was last seen walking down a Croft, at the Back of her House, which leads to a small Common, over which is a Foot way, leading to that Part of the Town of Gainsborough, aforesaid, where the said Deceased lived; and that, the said Deceased usually walked, every Evening, along the said Foot-way, from the said Mrs. Dixon's, to his own Home, about that Time of the Night; —That, the said Deceased never came to his own Home all that Night, nor could be found, (tho' diligent Search was made for him) until the next Morning, about Ten o'Clock, when, his Body was found in the Cold Bath, (which stands upon the Piece of Common, nigh to the Foot-Road before-mentioned, and has been, for some Time, deserted and left open,) in the Situation before described; the Deceased's Hat lying near the Door on the Outside, and his Wig within the Dressing-Room; On the further Side of which Room there was, much Blood spilt, and a Trail of Blood, from thence, along the Floor, to the Door leading to the Steps of the Bath; — That, the Deceased's Pockets were rifled of his Gold Watch and Money: And that, by an Inquest taken, on the Body of the said Deceased, by one of the Coroners for the said County of Lincoln, on Thursday the 24th of the said Month of January last, it was found, that, the Deceased had died by such Wounds, or by the Water, or one of them; and that, the Cause of such his Death was Murder, committed by Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in committing the said Murder, is, hereby, pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover one, or more, of his, or her, Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, Henry Revell, of Gainsborough, in the County of Lincoln, Esq; does, hereby, promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid, by him, upon the Conviction of any one, or more of the Offenders. John Mayer, of Grays Inn, for Henry Revell.

And as a still further Encouragement, the Inhabitants of the Town of Gainsborough aforesaid, do likewise, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person, making the like Discovery, as aforesaid; to be paid by the Constable, for the Time being, of the said Town of Gainsborough, upon the Conviction of any one, or more, of the said Offenders.

John Mayer, of Grays Inn, for Henry Revell, on Account of the Inhabitants of Gainsborough.
